UIPM 2022 YOUTH WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS: RAMADAN & KHALIL DELIVER FIFTH GOLD FOR EGYPT

Egypt continued to dominate the UIPM 2022 Youth World Championships in Lignano Sabbiadoro (ITA) with a fifth gold medal in the Under 17 Women's Relay.

Ritage Ramadan and Farida Khalil (EGY) won a thrilling sprint finish against their compatriots Sarah Mohamed & Ganah Elgindy (EGY).

With only one duo from each nation allowed a medal, Amelie Treib and Nadja Farmand of Germany won silver in 3rd place as Zoe Spokes and Elizabeth Ryan of Great Britain picked up bronze in 4th.

The day also featured the Under 19 Women's Semi-finals, with 18 athletes progressing to the Final.

Under 17 Women's Relay

Ramadan & Khalil (EGY) were 2nd-fastest in Swimming, only a fraction of a second slower than Enya Frouin and Mireia Vazquez of Spain, giving them a strong platform for the Laser Run with their compatriots Mohamed & Elgindy (EGY) starting 17sec behind.

An exceptionally rapid Laser Run by Mohamed & Elgindy (8min 57.30) very nearly earned them gold, also thanks to a 10sec penalty incurred by Ramadan & Khalil (EGY), but Khalil (EGY) prevailed in a sprint finish.

Treib & Farmand (GER) comfortably picked up the silver medal, finishing 13sec ahead of Spokes & Ryan (GBR).

Ramadan (EGY) said: "It's amazing because in the individual final my shooting was really bad, even though I was 1st in Swimming. Today it's an amazing feeling for us to win even though my had a 10sec penalty.

"Near the end I felt like we wouldn't get it, but my partner did a great job. I couldn't stand at the end, to celebrate with her!

Khalil (EGY) said: "I was really happy, the finish was amazing. We both want to be champions in the Youth Olympic Games and the Olympic Games. Our role models are Salma Abdelmaksoud, Haydy Morsy and Ahmed Elgendy."

Under 19 Women's Semi-finals

Thirty-six athletes took part in the Women's Semi-finals to determine which 18 would progress to the Final on Super Sunday (September 11).
