AMPC Asian Modern Pentathlon Confederation

About AMPC
AMPC is the Asian governing body of Modern Pentathlon which is officially recognized by the Olympic Council of Asia. AMPC is standing by UIPM to promote and support of Modern Pentathlon through the Olympic Games since 1912, Asian Games since 1994, other multi-sport events and also Asian championships since 1986, as we follow the philosophy of our founder, Baron Pierre de Coubertin and also Olympic Movement of IOC. AMPC has 30 Asian member federations which are appeared on the UIPM website.

History of AMPC and Asian Championships
1986 The first Asian championships took place in Seoul, Korea.
1987 Asian Modern Pentathlon & Biathlon Confederation (AMPBC) was established under the leadership of Korean Federation for development of Modern Pentathlon in Asia.
1991 The 2nd Asian championships took place in Seoul, Korea.
1992 The Modern Pentathlon was included in the official programs of the Asian Games at 1994 Hiroshima Asian Games (Approved by OCA General Assembly).
1993 The 3rd Asian championships took place in China.
1994 The 4th Asian championships took place in Japan.
1995 The 5th Asian championships took place in Kyrgyzstan.
1997 The 6th Asian championships took place in Chinese Taipei.
1998 The 7th Asian championships took place in Kazakhstan.
1999 The 8th Asian championships took place in Kyrgyzstan.
2000 The 9th Asian championships took place in Japan.
2002 The 14th Asian Games took place in Busan, Korea with 8 NOCs.
- BRN, CHN, JPN, KAZ, KGZ, KOR, UZB, TPE
  The 10th Asian championships took place in Japan.
2003 The 11th Asian championships took place in Kaohsiung, Chinese Taipei.
2004 The 12th Asian championships took place in Beijing, China.
2005 The 13th Asian championships took place in Almaty, Kazakhstan.
2006 The 14th Asian championships took place in Kaohsiung, Chinese Taipei.
2007 The 15th Asian championships took place in Tokyo, Japan.
2008 The 16th Asian championships took place in Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan.
2009  The 17th Asian championships took place in Seoul, Korea.
➢ Biathlon and Modern Pentathlon were separated in the Asian confederation.

2010  The 15th Asian Games took place in Guangzhou, China with 6 NOCs.
- CHN, JPN, KAZ, KGZ, KOR, UZB
➢ The official name of Asian confederation for Modern Pentathlon was changed from AMPBC to AMPC.

2011  The 18th Asian championships took place in Chengdu, China.
➢ The official logo of AMPC was approved.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>AMPBC</th>
<th>AMPC</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td><img src="image1" alt="AMPBC Logo" /></td>
<td><img src="image2" alt="AMPC Logo" /></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2012  The 19th Asian championships took place in Kaohsiung, Chinese Taipei.
➢ The Youth events made its first debut at the Asian championships and it has been included in the Asian championships since then.

2013  The 20th Asian championships took place in Astana, Kazakhstan.

2014  The 17th Asian Games took place in Incheon, Korea with 6 NOCs.
- CHN, JPN, KAZ, KGZ, KOR, UZB
➢ The 4th Asian Beach Games took place in Phuket, Thailand where the Triathlete format was officially included for the first time.

2015  The 21st Asian championships took place in Beijing, China.

2016  The 22nd Asian championships took place in Cholpon-Ata, Kyrgyzstan.

2017  The 23rd Asian championships took place in Gotemba, Japan.

2018  The 18th Asian Games took place in Jakarta, Indonesia with 8 NOCs.
- INA, CHN, JPN, KAZ, KGZ, KOR, MGL, THA